In 2016, ACE released a report entitled "Advancing Colleges and Universities: A Vision for the American Council on Education on Higher Education." The report outlines ACE's vision for the future of higher education and identifies the goals, strategies, and challenges that ACE will focus on in the coming years.

ACE's Vision for the Future of Higher Education

ACE's vision for the future of higher education is based on the belief that higher education is essential to the economic, social, and civic well-being of the United States. ACE believes that higher education should be accessible to all students, regardless of their background or financial circumstances. ACE also believes that higher education should prepare students for success in the workforce and in life.

ACE's vision for the future of higher education includes the following goals:

* To ensure that all students have access to affordable, high-quality higher education. * To prepare students for success in the workforce and in life. * To promote innovation and creativity in higher education. * To strengthen the global competitiveness of U.S. higher education. * To ensure that higher education is accountable to the public.

ACE's Strategies for Achieving Its Vision

ACE has identified a number of strategies that it will use to achieve its vision for the future of higher education. These strategies include:

* Advocating for policies that support access to affordable, high-quality higher education. * Providing leadership and guidance to the higher education community on issues such as curriculum development, student success, and faculty development. * Partnering with other organizations to advance the cause of higher education. * Conducting research and analysis on issues affecting higher education. * Communicating the value of higher education to the public.

Challenges Facing Higher Education

ACE's vision for the future of higher education is ambitious, but it is also realistic. ACE recognizes that there are a number of challenges facing higher education, including:

* The rising cost of college tuition. * The increasing demand for higher education. * The changing demographics of the student population. * The rapid pace of technological change. * The globalization of the economy.

ACE is committed to working with the higher education community to address these challenges and to ensure that higher education remains a vital force in the United States.

ACE's vision for the future of higher education is a bold one, but it is also an essential one. ACE believes that higher education is essential to the economic, social, and civic well-being of the United States. ACE is committed to working with the higher education community to achieve this vision.
