1. DIY Seed Paper

This is a great project for kids of all ages. Simply blend together recycled paper, water, and seeds. Then, pour the mixture into a mold and let it dry.

Once the paper is dry, you can plant it in the garden and watch the seeds grow!

2. DIY Fabric Scraps Quilt

If you have a lot of fabric scraps lying around, put them to good use by making a quilt! This is a great way to teach kids about sewing and quilting. Plus, it's a fun way to upcycle old fabric and create a beautiful piece of home decor.

3. DIY Upcycled T-shirt Tote Bag

Another great way to upcycle old fabric is to make a tote bag. This is a fun and easy project that's perfect for kids of all ages. Simply cut the sleeves off of an old T-shirt and sew the bottom hem. Then, add a strap and you're done!

4. DIY Recycled Newspaper Planters

These planters are a great way to upcycle old newspapers and grow your own plants. Simply roll up the newspaper and secure it with a rubber band. Then, fill the planter with soil and plant your seeds. Water the plants regularly and watch them grow!

5. DIY Egg Carton Seed Starters

These seed starters are a great way to start your own seedlings indoors. Simply cut out the individual cups from an egg carton and fill them with soil. Then, plant your seeds and water them regularly. Once the seedlings have grown, you can transplant them into the garden.

6. DIY Toilet Paper Roll Bird Feeders

These bird feeders are a fun and easy way to attract birds to your backyard. Simply spread peanut butter on the outside of a toilet paper roll and roll it in birdseed. Then, hang the feeder from a tree branch and watch the birds enjoy!

7. DIY Plastic Bottle Windsocks

These windsocks are a fun and easy way to decorate your backyard. Simply cut the bottom off of a plastic bottle and decorate it with paint or markers. Then, attach the bottle to a string and hang it from a tree branch. The wind will blow the windsock around and create a beautiful display.

8. DIY Tin Can Planters

These planters are a great way to upcycle old tin cans and grow your own plants. Simply clean out the can and poke drainage holes in the bottom. Then, fill the can with soil and plant your seeds. Water the plants regularly and watch them grow!

9. DIY Cardboard Box Playhouse

This playhouse is a great way to entertain kids indoors or out. Simply cut out the sides of a cardboard box and decorate it with paint or markers. Then, add a door and windows and let your kids play inside.

10. DIY Paper Plate Masks

These masks are a fun and easy way for kids to express their creativity. Simply cut out the shape of a mask from a paper plate and decorate it with paint, markers, or construction paper. Then, attach a string or elastic band to the mask so that your child can wear it.

11. DIY Popsicle
