Materials Required:

- Plastic canvas (14-count is recommended)

- Yarn (embroidery floss or thread in various colors)
- Jingle bells (1/2 inch or smaller)
- Yarn needle
- Sharp scissors
- Ruler or measuring tape
- Pencil or pen (optional)
- Glue or fabric adhesive (optional)

Step 1: Choosing Your Pattern

The first step is to select your desired pattern for the Jingle Bell Ornaments. While there are countless options available online and in craft books, we've included a classic bell-shaped pattern below:

Feel free to adjust the size of the pattern by increasing or decreasing the number of squares in each row.

Step 2: Cutting the Plastic Canvas

Once you have chosen your pattern, it's time to cut the plastic canvas. Measure and mark the appropriate size of the pattern on the canvas using a ruler and pencil. Carefully cut out the shape using sharp scissors, ensuring that the edges are clean.

Step 3: Embroidering the Design

Now comes the fun part: embroidering the design onto the plastic canvas. Thread your needle with the yarn of your choice and begin stitching according to the pattern. For this project, a simple running stitch or backstitch is sufficient.

Follow the pattern carefully, filling in the shapes with bright and festive colors. You can incorporate beads, sequins, or other embellishments to add extra flair.

Step 4: Attaching the Jingle Bell

Once the embroidery is complete, it's time to attach the jingle bell. Position the bell in the center of the plastic canvas and secure it with a few stitches through the top of the bell. Make sure the stitches are tight enough to hold the bell firmly but not so tight that you can't hear it jingle.

If desired, you can add a small piece of glue or fabric adhesive to the bottom of the bell for extra security.

Step 5: Finishing Touches

To complete your Jingle Bell Ornaments, add a hanging loop. You can use a small piece of yarn or thread, threading it through the top of the bell and tying it together.

If you wish, you can add additional embellishments such as ribbons, bows, or artificial holly around the edges of the ornament for a more festive touch.

Displaying Your Jingle Bell Ornaments

Once your Jingle Bell Ornaments are complete, it's time to display them with pride. You can hang them on your Christmas tree, use them as festive garlands, or add them to your holiday table decorations.

The cheerful jingle of bells and the vibrant colors of these ornaments will bring joy and warmth to your home throughout the holiday season.
