

What Not Box Plastic Canvas Pattern: A Comprehensive Guide for Beginners and Experts

Are you looking for a fun and rewarding craft project that you can enjoy with your family and friends? If so, then you should definitely consider trying out plastic canvas! Plastic canvas is a type of craft material that is made from a rigid plastic mesh. It is often used to create a variety of items, such as coasters, tissue box covers, and even jewelry. One of the most popular plastic canvas projects is the What Not Box. This versatile box can be used to store a variety of items, such as jewelry, craft supplies, or even snacks. In this article, we will provide you with a comprehensive guide on how to create your own What Not Box plastic canvas pattern.

Materials You Will Need

- Plastic canvas (14-count)
- Yarn (worsted weight)
- Yarn needle
- Scissors
- Ruler or measuring tape
- Pencil or pen

Instructions

1. Start by creating a foundation row. To do this, cut a piece of plastic canvas that is 11 inches wide by 5 inches tall. Then, use a yarn needle and yarn to stitch around the perimeter of the canvas, leaving a 1-inch opening at the bottom of the box.

2. Next, create the sides of the box. To do this, cut two pieces of plastic canvas that are 5 inches wide by 11 inches tall. Then, stitch the sides of the box to the foundation row, using a yarn needle and yarn.
3. Now, create the top of the box. To do this, cut a piece of plastic canvas that is 11 inches wide by 5 inches tall. Then, stitch the top of the box to the sides of the box, using a yarn needle and yarn.
4. Finally, create the bottom of the box. To do this, cut a piece of plastic canvas that is 11 inches wide by 5 inches tall. Then, stitch the bottom of the box to the sides of the box, using a yarn needle and yarn.
